Bird

Huxley was a bird. One day he flew past a cat. The cat was on a hill.

“What are you doing?”
Huxley asked the cat.

“I am sitting on a hill,”
said the cat.

“Come and fly with me,”
said Huxley.

“I cannot fly,” said the
cat.

“That is too bad,” said
Huxley.

“I will go and fly all around,” said Huxley.

“I will then come back and tell you all about it,” he said.

“That would be nice,” said the cat.

So Huxley went and flew all around.

He then came back to the cat.

Huxley told the cat what he had seen.

The cat was happy.

“Thank you,” said the
cat.

“You are welcome,”
said Huxley.

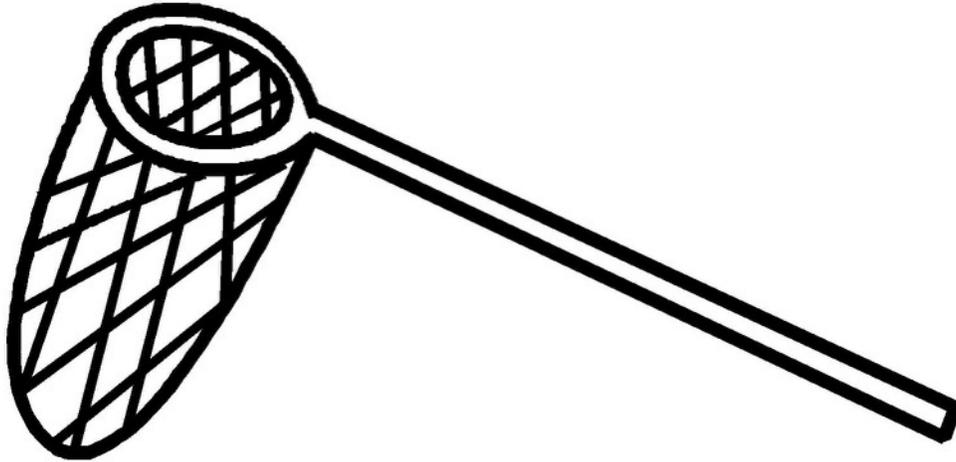

Falling Star

One night Huxley was outside with his dad.

"Help, help!" they heard from up in the sky.

"Look, Dad. A star is falling," said Huxley.

"What should we do?"
said his dad.

"I know what to do,"
said Huxley.

He ran and got a big net.

Huxley took the net and quickly caught the star just before it hit the ground.

"Thanks for saving me," said the star.

"What should we do with this star now?" asked Huxley's dad.

"We need to throw it back up into the sky," said Huxley.

Huxley grabbed the star out of the net and threw it back up into the sky.

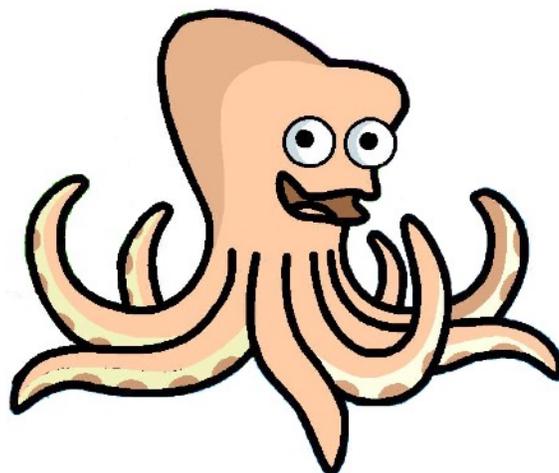

"Thanks so much," said the star from high up in the sky.

Huxley was proud that he had saved a falling star.

Octopus

One day Huxley woke up. He was an octopus.

“Mom, I am an octopus,” said Huxley.

“That is nice. Now figure out what to do with your eight arms,” said his mom.

Huxley thought and thought.

“I think I will play some music,” he said.

He got out a guitar and played it.

He got out a trumpet and played it.

He got out a drum and played it.

He then got out a maraca and played it.

“I bet I can play all of these at once with my eight arms,” said Huxley.

He picked up the maraca. He put the drum next to him. He picked up the trumpet. He then picked up the guitar.

He began to play music with the guitar, the trumpet, the drum, and the maraca.

“Your band sounds great,” said his mother.

“Thanks, Mom. It is fun to be a one octopus band,” said Huxley.

“Why do you want to be a basketball?” asked his teacher.

“I think it would be fun to fly in the air and then go swish through the basketball net,” replied Huxley.

“Okay you can become a basketball. Please come over here,” said the teacher. Huxley’s teacher reached inside the teacher’s desk and pulled out the lucky buffalo coin. Huxley walked over to the teacher’s desk. His teacher held the coin above Huxley’s head.

“Basketball, basketball, basketball,” said the teacher.

There was a loud poof, followed by some white smoke, and Huxley was a basketball.

One of Huxley's friends walked into the classroom just at that time.

"Do you want to go out and play basketball?" asked Huxley the basketball. His friend stopped right in his tracks and looked at the talking basketball.

"How can a basketball talk?" he asked.

“It’s me, Huxley,” said Huxley. “Our teacher used the lucky buffalo coin and turned me into a basketball.”

“Boy, you must have done something really bad for our teacher to turn you into a basketball,” said the friend.

“No, I didn’t. I asked our teacher to turn me into a basketball because I wanted to be a basketball,” said Huxley with a big smile.

“You kids can go outside and play,” said the teacher. “You have about five minutes before school will start. Just remember to bring Huxley back inside.”

Huxley’s friend grabbed Huxley the basketball and ran outside with him.

“Cool basketball,” said the other kids on the playground.

“It is just me, your friend, Huxley,” said the basketball.

“Neat,” said the kids.

The kids all played basketball with Huxley the basketball.

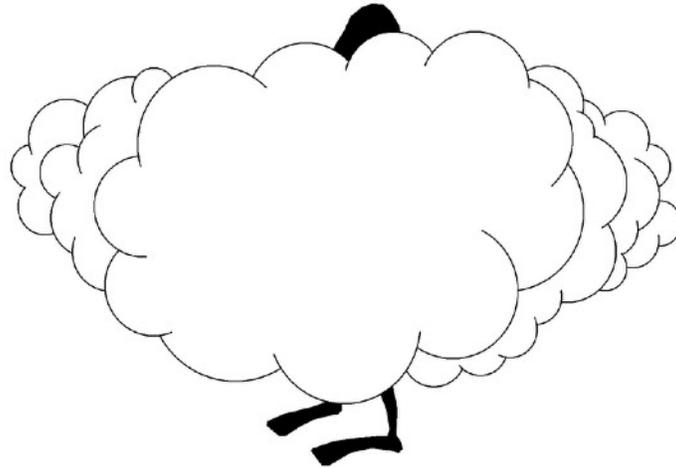

“Does it hurt being a basketball?” asked one of the friends.

“Not a bit,” said Huxley. “Shoot me through the hoop again.”

One of the kids picked up Huxley and took a shot. Swish went Huxley.

“That sure is fun,” said Huxley.
“Thanks.”

The school bell then rang. Huxley’s friend went back into the classroom with Huxley and walked over to their teacher.

The teacher held up the lucky buffalo coin and said, “Huxley, Huxley, Huxley.” There was a poof, then some white smoke, and Huxley was Huxley the boy again.

“Thank you. It was a lot of fun being a basketball. Maybe tomorrow I can be a baseball,” said Huxley.

“I am glad you had fun. We can see about you being a baseball tomorrow. Now, time for school,” said the teacher.
