

Greg Went to Another Planet

Greg went to another planet.

He got out of his ship and looked around.

There was a little being that lives on this other planet.

"How are you?" asked the little being.

"I am fine," said Greg.

"Let's have something to eat," said the being.

"That would be great," said Greg.