

I Want to Be a Queen

"I want to be a queen," I said one day.

"You can't be a real queen," said my mother.

"But I want to be a queen," I said.

"You can be a queen today," said my mother.

She got me a  balloon and a  crown.

I was a queen that one day. It was great.