

I am Baxter

I am Baxter. I am a  giraffe that lives in a zoo. People come and see me at the zoo.

Today, I wanted to go see something different, so I got my boots.

I then got my hat and my  backpack, and I left the zoo.

People said, "You belong in the zoo. You should not have left it."

I told them, "Do not get mad I will go back to the zoo soon."
